HIBERNIANS.

What They Have Been Doing the Past Week—General News Notes.

M. J. Driscoll is now Oregon's State President.

It is expected at least 10,000 more new members will be added to the roster before the drive is ended in San Francisco.

Eight divisions in Indianapolis are prominent in the arrangements for the reception of President De Valera in that city today.

The Ladies' Auxiliary of Los Angeles has acted upon the funeral benefit fund as suggested by the National President.

The Oregon State convention adopted a resolution urging the study of the social problems outlined by the National Catholic War Council.

Thousands attended the reunion and annual field day of Division 1 of Los Angeles, which is reported the greatest in the history of the order on the Western Coast.

A general impression prevailed at the Oregon convention among delegates that the time is ripe for a membership campaign, plans for which will soon be outlined by the new State Board.

The Hibernians of Portland, Ore., entertained members and friends with a most enjoyable complimentary social Monday night. They also disposed of the phonograph left over from the Irish fair.

Charles J. Fisher, of Indianapolis, the new County President, is one of the younger members of the order, but for several years has been one of the most active workers for Hibernians in the Hoosier capital.

In Indianapolis ten divisions of the Ladies' Auxiliary will participate in the reception to be tendered Eamon De Valera, President of the Irish Republic. They are co-operating in every way with the friends of Irish freedom.

National President Deery was present at the Marion county convention in Indianapolis, the largest and most harmonious ever held there. He urged the importance of taking part in the reception to be given to the President of the Irish Republic, now visiting the Western States.

The fifth week of the membership drive of the nine San Francisco divisions of the Ancient Order in America closed with more than 3,000 new members enrolled. So enthusiastic and successful have the efforts of the various drive teams been that the campaign managers have decided to continue the campaign until every eligible in San Francisco has had ample opportunity to join the big organization.

ELIZABETHTOWN.

Forty Hours Devotion was celebrated at St. James' church, Elizabethtown, this past week. For the past month Rev. P. M. Monaghan, the new pastor, has worked unceasingly in beautifying and improving his charge, all not being completed at this writing. A hardwood floor was laid in the sanctuary, a gold tabernacle, a new ostensorium and new vestments made the sanctuary very attractive. The services began Sunday morning with solemn high mass, Father Monaghan as celebrant, Father Edward O'Sullivan as deacon, and Father John Gastald as sub-deacon. Rev. Father Ruff, of Vine Grove, a former Louisville priest, delivered a masterful sermon on the devotion to the Blessed Sacrament, and on Monday morning Rev. Father Hayes, of Bowling Green, delivered an eloquent and instructive sermon on the necessity of striving to save our souls. Tuesday morning the Forty Hours closed with solemn high mass, Father Hayes, as celebrant, Father Vincent Scollia as deacon, Father McAleer as sub-deacon, and Father Monaghan as master of ceremonies. A procession of children, well trained by the pastor and Sisters, was included in the closing exercises, which were brought to a close with solemn benediction. The unusually large number of communicants was especially gratifying to the beloved pastor, and his continuation of the good work begun by Father Daly is inspiring to the people of St. James church.

EUCHE, LOTTO, 500.

The congregation of St. Frances of Rome church will entertain with a euche, lotto and 500 at Trinity Council, Y. M. I. Hall, Baxter avenue and Morton, next Wednesday afternoon and evening. The games will be called at 2:30 and 8 o'clock and lunch will be served at 5 o'clock, giving the afternoon play-

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS

Late News That Will Interest Members Here and Elsewhere.

Sixty new members have been received into the order at Valparaiso, Ind.

Price Hill Council, Cincinnati, announces a two days' initiation, October 17 and 18.

Indianapolis Council had a very encouraging drive this week for funds for its new home.

One hundred and fifty candidates will receive the degrees at Fort Wayne on Discovery day.

Columbus day will be celebrated at Wapakoneta, Ohio, by initiating a large class, followed by a banquet.

The council at Peru, Ind., tendered its soldier members a largely attended and enjoyable banquet last week.

The Columbus day fourth degree exemplification at Memphis will cover the largest class ever put through in the South.

Denver Knights have opened a new movement to establish a national tuberculosis sanatorium for the order in that city.

Louisville Council will initiate tomorrow. Grand Knight Dan Lawler has set 1,000 new members as the mark for his administration.

Men with the navy who made the Pacific Coast ports have high praise for the treatment they received everywhere from the K. of C.

The Columbus day banquet at Cincinnati has been called off on account of the reception to Cardinal Meyer, which occurs a few days later.

The Fourth Degree Knights and the various Hamilton county councils will participate in the parade and dedication of the new Court House at Cincinnati this afternoon.

Sunday afternoon the major degrees were conferred on the combined classes of Cincinnati, Elder, Norwood, Northside and Westwood Councils. The candidates filled Elder Council Hall.

Dr. J. J. Tigert, of the Kentucky University, who was with the A. E. F. in Europe and has the only official war pictures in this section, displayed them last week for the entertainment of Blue Grass Council at Lexington.

CASEY ALL READY.

District Manager H. C. Higgins, of the United States Shipping Board, announces that hull No. 1487, now completed at the Hog Island shipyards, Philadelphia, will be ready for launching on Saturday afternoon, October 2, the eve of Columbus day. The vessel is to be called "Casey," a title bestowed upon the workers of the Knights of Columbus during the fierce fighting in the Argonne Forest. In announcing the tribute which is being paid to the K. of C., the official letter states:

"The hull will be christened Casey, in recognition of the splendid work of the Knights of Columbus in the interests of the soldiers of the American Expeditionary forces."

An elaborate programme has been arranged for the christening of the Casey. Little Miss Miriam Flaherty, daughter of James A. Flaherty, Supreme Knight of the Knights of Columbus, has been elected sponsor for the ship. All Supreme officers and Board of Directors will be present, also State and local officials and a great gathering of members of the order. The Knights have pledged themselves to keep a weather eye on the future sojourns and career of the freighter. A library for the crew, recreation room, movie machine and films, victrola, piano and other novel features will be donated to the Casey, all appropriately designed and conforming to the history of the vessel. This interest will be maintained continuously, so that the good ship Casey will never have to plough the Spanish main and golden Caribbean with the crew being at a loss for entertainment. Little Miss Flaherty says she is not the least bit perturbed over the big job which the Knights have assigned to her.

BONZANO RETURNS.

Word has been received at the Apostolic Legation in Washington that Archbishop Bonzano, the Papal Delegate, who has been in Europe for several months, will sail from Naples for the United States on October 3. He will probably arrive at New York on October 17, and will remain in that city for several days before coming to Washington.
